Repairs to small Arms- Prohibition Department.

In continuation of letter No.3517/23/MG/ME-3(c) 8516-D(O&C), dated the 12th November 1952 I am directed to inform you that major repairs to the small arms held by the prohibtion Department of the Government of Madras may be undertaken in 515 Command Workshop EME. Bangalore, on payment subject to the priorities given to Army requirements.

2. The payment for such repairs may be adjusted by book debits against the Government of Madras.

3. The inspection facilities cannot be extended to the Prohibition Department of the Madras Government due to shortage of staff.

4. It is suggested that minor repairs of the small arms may be carried out by the Police armourers as is done in the case of police arms.
